Part B for April 30

SUBJECT

Representations made to Govt. by the Hon'ble [illegible] for the Grant of loans for house building purposes at a low rate of interest

C.S. 139-29-1

Office of the Dewan of Mysore,

NOTE.

Camp Closepet, Dated 7th April 1930.

Chief Secretary:

DEWAN'S OFFICE. 8 - APR. 1930 No. 794

The people of the Closepet town asked for the grant of loans carrying a low rate of interest from the local House-building Co-operative Society for constructing new or improving old houses in the town. The Registrar who was present explained that as the rules now stood, loans could be granted only for the construction of houses in the extensions but that if the people were willing to build new houses in the extension side by side with the repair of old houses in the town, he would favourably consider their request.
